

CUB SCOUTING TOUCHDOWNS OF DAYS PAST

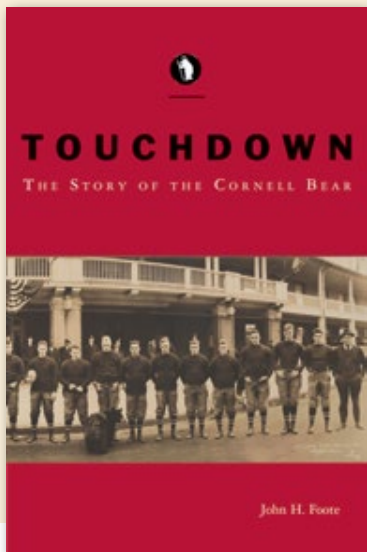

PAWS TO REMEMBER: The quartet of cubs who served as mascots, dubbed (from left to right) Touchdown I, II, III, and IV

BY THE BOOK: Cornell University Press is re-releasing the history of the Big Red's live mascots, which John Foote '74 originally published in 2008.

IN BRONZE: The campus statue honoring the four cubs
