

ALUMNI DEATHS

'38 BA—Alvah M. Weiss of Scarsdale, NY, February 13, 2017; retired pediatrician; active in alumni affairs.

'39 BA—Jay Eliasberg of New York City, April 29, 2017; retired VP for research, Columbia Broadcast Group. Beta Sigma Rho.

'40 DVM—Moe Kopp of Brookeville, MD, November 1, 2017; retired veterinarian.

'41 BA—Jeanne Hyde Bushnell of Orchard Park, NY, February 6, 2018; social worker, Lucy M. Waver Assocs.; director of social work, Aurora Park Health Care Center; foster mother for physically and mentally handicapped infants; active in community affairs. Alpha Omicron Pi.

'41 MS HE—Margaret Whelan Keenan (Mrs. Vincent J., PhD '42) of Tilghman, MD, April 5, 2018; dietitian; math and science teacher. Delta Gamma.

'41 BS HE—Shirley Richards Sargent of Delmar, NY, April 5, 2018; employed by the NYS Dept. of Education; teacher, Bedford Hills, NY; pianist, including with the Albany String Ensemble and the Capital Area Senior Orchestra; choir singer; expert seamstress and cook; longtime 1941 class correspondent; active in alumni affairs.

'42 BA—Marjory Schminck Dalenius of Providence, RI, May 14, 2018; mixed media assemblage artist; gallery director, Providence Art Club; active in community and professional affairs.

'42 BA—Dorothy Andrews Owens of Arlington, VA, December 16, 2017; associate professor of literature and academic advisor, American U.; acted in local theater; enjoyed travel; active in community affairs. Kappa Alpha Theta. Husband, William W. Owens, '40, BA '41.

'42 BME—Ferdinand P. Schoedinger Jr. of Columbus, OH, September 16, 2017; chairman of the board and treasurer, F. O. Schoedinger Inc.; also worked for Curtis Wright Co.; veteran; Rotarian; enjoyed travel and golf; active in civic, community, professional, and alumni affairs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

'43 BA—Catherine Young Goodyear (Mrs. Charles H. '43) of Reynoldsburg, OH, May 2, 2018; homemaker; established a school for disabled children; worked for General Motors; active in civic, community, and religious affairs.

'43 DVM—George D. Halpin of Baldwinsville, NY, July 19, 2014; veterinarian; owned Baldwinsville Animal Hospital; veteran.

'43 BS HE—Dorothy Thaden Rainey of Davidson, NC, February 1, 2016.

'43 MD—Seymour E. Rosenthal of Woodcliff Lake, NJ, January 28, 2016; oncologist and internal medicine physician, Mount Sinai Hospital.

'44 BS HE—Martha Edson Baxter of Ellisburg, PA, April 1, 2018; chemist, Union Carbide; active in religious and alumni affairs. Pi Beta Phi. Husband, Raymond C. Baxter '44.

'44 BS Ag—Ada Rabotnikoff Burriss of San Jose, CA, August 3, 2017.

'44 BA, MS '46—Sturla Fridriksson of Reykjavik, Iceland, August 14, 2015; geneticist; naturalist; managing director, genetics committee, U. of Iceland; chairman, Faculty of Agricultural Sciences, Agricultural Research Inst.; author, Surtsey: Evolution of Life on a Volcanic Island; active in community and professional affairs.

'44, BCE '47—Kenneth A. Kander of Issaquah, WA, January 20, 2018; fire protection consultant; fire protection engineer, Marsh & McLennan Insurance Co.; civil engineer, Los Alamos National Laboratory; also worked for Boeing; veteran; volunteer fireman; enjoyed travel; active in civic, community, and professional affairs. Alpha Epsilon Pi.

'45 BA—Elizabeth Hemsath deProse of Ithaca, NY, February 16, 2018; librarian, Ithaca College; also worked in science labs; enjoyed reading, Scrabble, skiing, and watercolor painting; active in community and alumni affairs. Delta Gamma.

'45 MD—Forrest C. Eggleston of Mechanicsburg, PA, November 7, 2016; professor, head of surgery, and director, Christian Medical College in Ludhiana, India; specialist in thoracic surgery; veteran; established foundations to treat AIDS; enjoyed tennis and fly fishing; active in professional affairs.

'45 BS Nurs—Muriel Clark Fereday of Boise, ID, April 14, 2018; nurse; chair, Experiment in Int'l Living; singer in musical theater; choir director; organized first Sun Valley Jazz Jamboree; avid reader; enjoyed travel, gardening, hiking, skiing, swimming, and painting; active in community affairs.

'45, BME '44—Roy E. Hughes of The Woodlands, TX, April 20, 2018; executive, Lone Star Boat Co.; also worked in aeronautics; veteran; active in alumni affairs. Beta Theta Pi.

'45, BA '48—Richard J. Neudorfer of Lantana, FL, March 7, 2018; orthopedic surgeon; chief of surgery, St. Agnes Hospital; veteran. Tau Epsilon Phi. Wife, Elinor (Silverstein) '48.

'46—Lois Chapman Aldrich of Glenville, NY, April 1, 2018; taught mechanical drawing; enjoyed painting, needlework, and gourmet cooking; member, Daughters of the American Revolution; active in community affairs.

'46, BA '45—Naomi Colvin Gellman (Mrs. Maurice M. '44, MBA '48) of New York City, May 4, 2018; retired high school math teacher; also worked for the NYC Dept. of Health, Eye-Bank for Sight Restoration, and the Long Island School Finance Commission; enjoyed museums, the New York Philharmonic, sailing, swimming, and travel; active in community affairs.

'46 BS HE—Phyllis Fish Hughes of North Andover, MA, April 10, 2018; librarian.

'46, BS HE '45—Mary Marzolf Langendorfer of Bath, NY, March 25, 2018; retired real estate salesperson and broker; occupational therapist; Red Cross first aid instructor and relief worker; gardener; avid reader; active in civic, community, and religious affairs.

'46, BA '47, MA '48—Alan M. Levy of New York City, November 27, 2014; physician; enjoyed travel.

'47 BS HE—Margaret Schiavone Berens (Mrs. Donald P. '47) of Pittsford, NY, April 25, 2018; bookkeeper; Red Cross volunteer; enjoyed tennis, bridge, travel, and the New York Yankees; active in community and alumni affairs. Pi Beta Phi.

'47, BME '46—Robert M. Borden of Banff, AB, Canada, April 6, 2018; worked in oil and gas drilling; developed property in Canada, the US, and Europe; operated hotels, restaurants, and a clothing store; art gallery owner; ran venture capital companies; enjoyed nature, music, skiing, golf, swimming, and tennis; active in civic, community, and professional affairs. Phi Sigma Delta.

'48—David R. Edgerton of Cutler Bay, FL, April 3, 2018; restaurateur; co-founder of Burger King; owner, Waterfront Restaurants; restaurant manager, Howard Johnson's; wine importer; veteran; traveler; active in professional affairs.

'48-49 GR—Anna Dueser Nearing (Mrs. Frank H. '42, PhD '54) of South Kansas City, MO, December 27, 2017; high school teacher; bridge player; active in community and religious affairs.

'48, BME '50—Eugene O'Brien Jr. of Monroe, NY, October 1, 2017.

'48 BA—Carol Wiseman Peterson of Sunnyvale, CA, April 3, 2018; co-founded Fairfield Subscription Agency; high school English teacher; enjoyed tennis, ballroom dancing, and adult education history and music classes; active in community affairs.

'49 BEE—S. Robert Breitbarth of Westport, CT, April 14, 2018; executive for General Cable Corp.; veteran; traveler; active in professional affairs.

'49 BA—Laura Ann Ferres Fitts of Niskayuna, NY, March 29, 2018; elementary school library media specialist, Schenectady Public Schools; lover of children's literature; dollhouse maker; enjoyed crafts, bridge, swimming, and jigsaw puzzles; active in community, religious, and alumni affairs. Delta Gamma.

'49 BS Ag—Charles N. Huhtanen of Port Richey, FL, February 15, 2018. Wife, Sylvia (Birdsall) '48.

'49 BCE—William W. Langhorst of Oxford, NY, April 18, 2018; civil engineer, NYS Dept. of Transportation; veteran; photographer; outdoorsman; active in professional and alumni affairs. Chi Epsilon.

'49—Robert E. Nichols of Homer, NY, April 2, 2018; worked in Army Intelligence; veteran; pilot; took part in Scottish heritage activities. Wife, Jane (Morgan) '55.

'50 BS HE—Dorothy Patterson Dodds (Mrs. James D. '50) of Willsboro, NY, March 20, 2018; retired teacher; enjoyed travel; active in religious and alumni affairs. Pi Beta Phi.

'50 MD—Robert C. Hafford of Bay City, MI, and Naples, FL, January 15, 2018; internist; veteran; avid boater; enjoyed birding and travel; active in professional affairs.

'50 BS Ag—Francis P. Heffernan of Spring Hill, FL, April 14, 2018; retired public safety officer; veteran; active in community and religious affairs.

'50 MD—Joseph L. O'Brien of New York City, September 14, 2017; attending neurologist and clinical professor of neurology, Neurological Inst., Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center; veteran.

'50 MD—Mason Whitmore of State College, PA, July 17, 2014; radiologist; worked at Sylvan Radiology and Lankenau Hospital; member, Metropolitan Opera Guild; active in professional affairs.

'51 BME, MME '54—Albert G. Fonda of King of Prussia, PA, April 1, 2018; past president, American Society of Inventors. Phi Kappa Tau.

'51 MD—Allan M. Levy of Woodcliff Lake, NJ, April 8, 2018; chief of sports medicine, Pascack Valley Hospital; team doctor, New York Giants; veteran; active in community and professional affairs.

'51, BS ILR '52—John V. Schappi of Washington, DC, February 21, 2018; VP of human resources and associate editor, Bureau of National Affairs (now Bloomberg BNA); author; blogger; enjoyed biking, bridge, gardening, travel, and attending theater and dance performances; active in community, professional, and religious affairs.

'51, BME '52—Peter D. Spencer of Cleveland, OH, February 23, 2018; veteran; active in alumni affairs. Delta Phi. Wife, Marie (Heidingsfeld), GR '51-52.

'52, BME '53—Edward J. Carney of Fort Wayne, IN, November 9, 2017; golfer; avid reader. Delta Tau Delta.

'52 BS Ag, MBA '56—William F. Scazzero of Elmsford, NY, March 23, 2018; founder and owner, Valhalla Station Restaurant; also worked for General Foods and Continental Baking; veteran; Rotarian; volunteered to operate the Westchester County Prison Farm Program; member of the '49 and '50 Cornell championship football team; active in community, professional, and alumni affairs.

'52 BA—William R. Vickroy of Creve Coeur, MO, May 20, 2018; VP of international marketing, McDonnell Douglas Automation Co.; also worked for IBM; veteran; avid collector of toy soldiers; active in civic, community, professional, religious, and alumni affairs. Delta Tau Delta. Wife, Margaret (Doolittle) '53.

'53 LLB—Rudolph De Winter of Manhasset, NY, January 16, 2018; attorney; partner in Kramer, Levin, Naftalis, and Frankel; associate professor of real property contract law, NYU's Graduate School of Real Estate; veteran; volunteered for Nassau Suffolk Law Services; author; active in civic, community, and professional affairs.

'53 PhD—Bernard H. Eckstein of Oberlin, OH, November 27, 2017; materials researcher at DuPont and Union Carbide; expert on carbon fibers; postdoctoral fellow in polymer physics; veteran; enjoyed travel, music, and hiking; active in community, professional, and religious affairs.

'53 PhD—Samuel Gordon of Lantana, FL, formerly of Hartsdale, NY, June 28, 2016; ENT physician; US Navy flight surgeon; veteran; pilot; enjoyed horses, fishing, hunting, and travel.

'53 BA—C. Fredric Hobbs of Carmel, CA, April 25, 2018; painter and sculptor; pioneered the form ART-ECO; used his mobile sculptures to introduce the idea of art outside the museum environment; filmmaker; executive producer, the Madison Hobbs Studio; author; veteran; active in community, professional, and alumni affairs. Theta Xi.

'53—Norman F. Innes of Chapel Hill, NC, March 28, 2018; worked in computer science; veteran; photographer; amateur astronomer; supporter of the Charlotte and North Carolina symphonies. Wife, Rhonda (Nathan) '56.

'53, BLAR '54, BArch '57—Robert L. Mann of Lancaster, PA, March 30, 2018; retired senior VP in design and construction; assistant director, Office of Regional Resources and Development, Cornell U.; assistant professor of landscape architecture and planning, Syracuse U.; active in professional and alumni affairs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.

'53 BA—Leah Loonsk Mendelsohn (Mrs. Robert A., JD '52) of White Plains, NY, February 16, 2018; retired public school teacher; bronze life master of bridge; ran bridge programs on cruise ships; taught bridge in adult education and private classes; past president, White Plains League of Women Voters; traveler; active in civic and community affairs. Sigma Delta Tau.

'53 DVM—Robert C. Nelson of Shrewsbury, NJ, January 15, 2016; veterinarian; active in alumni affairs.

'53, BCE '54—Thomas E. Peterson of Greenfield, MA, May 21, 2018; Jungian psychologist; minister, United Church of Christ; veteran; enjoyed music, poetry, literature, mythology, golf, fly fishing, and canoeing; active in professional and religious affairs. Phi Delta Theta.

'54, BME '55—Donald S. Eyman of Fort Myers, FL, May 13, 2018; retired project manager and engineer; worked at Dravo Corp. in Pittsburgh, PA, and Ontario, Canada. Wife, Mira (Heerlein) '54.

'54—Ralph P. Gentile of New Haven, CT, December 13, 2015; investment advisor; VP of Investments, Janney Montgomery Scott; veteran; active in civic and community affairs. Alpha Sigma Phi.

'54, BArch '55—Arthur R. Holtzapfel of Bryan, TX, April 12, 2018; architect; senior project engineer; designed hospitals; veteran; artist; pilot; ESL teacher; enjoyed German folk dancing, bridge, and classical music; active in community and professional affairs. Tau Kappa Epsilon. Wife, Joan (Persson) '55.

'54 MD—William J. Kimber of Danville, PA, March 9, 2018; retired cardiologist; medical director, School of Cardiovascular Technology; volunteered with the American Heart Assn. and the Red Cross; enjoyed tennis, golf, and skiing; voracious reader; active in community and professional affairs.

'54 BA—Kathleen Wickes Ray (Mrs. Oakley S. '51, BA '52) of Nashville, TN, February 14, 2018; chairman of foreign languages, Aquinas College; board member, Alliance Française; enjoyed travel, especially to France; active in professional affairs. Alpha Omicron Pi.

'54, BArch '57—Robert C. Rogus of Redding, CT, May 11, 2018; architect. Pi Kappa Alpha.

'55, BS AEP '56, PhD '60—Donald T. Farley Jr. of Ithaca, NY, May 13, 2018; professor emeritus of electrical and computer engineering, Cornell; physicist and director of the Jicamarca incoherent-scatter facility in Lima, Peru; visiting professor, Uppsala Ionospheric Observatory; received the Gold Medal for Geophysics from the Royal Astronomical Society and the Hannes Alfvén Medal from the European Geophysical Union; author; enjoyed travel, bridge, tennis, hiking, canoeing, and running; active in professional and alumni affairs. Delta Chi.

'55—John J. Howard of Orlando, FL, April 22, 2018; sales engineer, UGI Utilities; chemical engineer at Dixie Cup; veteran; sports fan; basketball referee; golfer; active in community and religious affairs.

'55—Frederick M. Kuehn of Liverpool, NY, February 15, 2018; worked in the Aerospace division of General Electric; veteran. Phi Sigma Kappa.

'55 BS Nurs—Nancy Dalby Lyons of Marlboro, NY, March 4, 2018; retired nurse practitioner; named Nurse Practitioner of the Year in 1988; school nurse, Newburgh Schools; enjoyed bridge, skiing, sailing, and travel; active in professional and religious affairs. Kappa Delta.

'55, BS Ag '57, DVM '58—Frederick W. Oehme of Manhattan, KS, April 9, 2018; professor of veterinary medicine, Kansas State U.; expert in toxicology and public health; active in professional and religious affairs.

'56 BA—Ellen Levine Brown of Chevy Chase, MD, April 7, 2018; VP, the Old Tampa Bay Book Co.; operated Shoestring Gallery; active in civic, community, professional, and alumni affairs. Husband, David E. Brown '56, BME '57.

'56–Ethel Levy Lowell of Nashville, TN, April 11, 2018; orthopedic and geriatric nurse; home healthcare nurse; raised horses; enjoyed gardening, birding, reading, and needlepoint.

'56 PhD–Eliza Pollard Mark of Charlotte, NC, March 26, 2018; worked at Dow Chemical. Husband, James E. Mark, GR '57.

'56 PhD–Marvin M. Okanes of Walnut Creek, CA, November 22, 2017; professor of organizational behavior, U. of San Francisco; veteran; enjoyed travel and ballroom dancing.

'56, BME '57–David G. Pyle of Sarasota, FL, April 4, 2018; facilities manager, Procter & Gamble; veteran; singer; active in religious and alumni affairs. Alpha Tau Omega. Wife, Jane (Wedell) '57.

'56–Hubert S. Whitworth of Lavonia, GA, April 20, 2018; chairman, Northeast Georgia Bank; established Franklin Insurance Agency; owned a poultry business; active in community, professional, and religious affairs. Kappa Sigma.

'57 MA–Mary Sisk Caulfield of San Rafael, CA, May 8, 2018; general medicine physician and orthopedist; at Permanente Medical Group; also worked for Spencer and King Orthopedic Group and the US Dept. of Education; artist; carpenter/woodworker; active in community and professional affairs.

'57 MS–Theodore B. Covert of Peterborough, NH, March 13, 2018; worked for Zotos; chairman, Darien, CT, Board of Finance; financial analyst, Corn Products; veteran; active in community and religious affairs.

'57 MS HE–Eleanor Zehner Hibben (Mrs. Craig R., PhD '62) of Woodsboro, MD, formerly of Yorktown Heights, NY, June 1, 2017; retired from Cornell Cooperative Extension.

'57, BME '58–Ross W. Johnson of Hot Springs Village, AR, April 10, 2018; president, Johnson Ford; veteran; Rotarian; enjoyed fishing, boating, and travel; active in community, professional, religious, and alumni affairs. Alpha Sigma Phi.

'57 MS–John Schwarzenbach of Otley, UK, September 30, 2017; senior lecturer, School of Mechanical Engineering, and study abroad coordinator, U. of Leeds; design section leader, Aero Engine division, Rolls Royce; expert in control theory; translated many technical specifications from German and French; author; active in professional affairs.

'57 BS Hotel–Ralph M. Woodworth of San Diego, CA, May 5, 2018; operated Chasen's Restaurant in Los Angeles; VP, MCA's Recreational Services; managed the Santa Barbara Biltmore, Clift, and Plaza hotels in San Francisco, and Bel Air Sands and Bel Age Hotel in Los Angeles; veteran; Rotarian; active in community, professional, and religious affairs.

'57–Noel H. Yriberry of Arequipa, Peru, April 28, 2018; honorary Chilean consul.

'58 BA–Anthony A. D'Amato Jr. of Chicago, IL, March 24, 2018; Leighton Professor of Law, Northwestern U.; expert on ethics and human rights; first American lawyer to argue and win a case before the European Court of Human Rights; litigated human rights cases around the world; also taught political science at Wellesley College; author; enjoyed music and theater; produced "Grease" in its original Chicago run; active in civic, community, and professional affairs. Wife, Barbara (Steketee) '60.

'58 BS Hotel–Nicholas I. Fulop of Chicago, IL, June 18, 2017; hotelier.

'58 BA, JD '60–David A. Goldstein of New York City, April 8, 2018; attorney; active in religious and alumni affairs. Zeta Beta Tau.

'58 MD–Edward S. Hartmann of New York City, February 18, 2018; psychiatrist; teacher; member of the New York Psychoanalytic Society & Inst.

'58 JD–Eugene S. Stephens of Prattsburgh, NY, January 23, 2018; attorney, Kodak patent department; veteran.

'58, BEE '59, PhD '62–James S. Thorp of Blacksburg, VA, May 2, 2018; professor emeritus of electrical and computer engineering, Virginia Tech; director, School of Electrical Engineering, Cornell; also worked for AEP Service Corp., IEEE Power System Relaying Committee, and CIGRE; author; recipient of the Franklin Medal; active in professional affairs. Beta Pi.

'58 BS Ag, MBA '59–Jonas Weil of St. Louis, MO, April 16, 2018; founder, OfficePlus Corp.; active in community, religious, and alumni affairs. Zeta Beta Tau.

'59 BS HE–Ruth Rosen Abrams of New York City, January 23, 2014; active in alumni affairs.

'59 MD–Robert J. Athans of Bronxville, NY, May 24, 2017; physician at Lawrence Hospital; surgeon, Eastchester Fire Dept.

'59 BA, MBA '61–Robert N. Bergesen of Middlebury, VT, April 15, 2018; general manager, Vermont Transit; motel owner; auditor, Price Waterhouse; helped resettle Sudanese refugees; jogger; active in religious affairs.

'59–Sue Blevins of Austin, TX, March 28, 2018; artist; active in professional affairs.

'60–62 SP ILR–Rennie L. Buckland of Reno, NV, June 28, 2017; stockbroker; veteran; skier; ski patrol volunteer.

'60 BS Hotel–Richard L. Reifschneider of Raleigh, NC, March 18, 2018; realtor; pilot; firefighter; EMT; veteran; sportsman. Theta Delta Chi.

'60 BS Ag–Richard A. Robinson of Deerfield Beach, FL, November 22, 2017; 4-H program director, Dutchess County Cooperative Extension; enjoyed golf and cruises; active in professional and religious affairs.

'61, BA '62–Bruce S. Harris of Richfield Springs, NY, March 31, 2018; retired neurosurgeon; assistant clinical professor, Columbia U. College of Physicians and Surgeons; veteran; pianist; sang in the chorus of Glimmerglass Opera; founder, Voices of Cooperstown; gardener; active in community, professional, and alumni affairs. Phi Kappa Psi.

'61, BS Ag '62–Delbert R. Mee of Falconer, NY, April 24, 2018; senior application engineer, Monofrax; sports enthusiast; golfer; family genealogist; active in community and professional affairs. Alpha Gamma Rho.

'61–67 GR–Margaret Conger Unsworth (Mrs. Byron E., GR '66–67) of Gaithersburg, MD, March 28, 2018; assistant dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Cornell; academic advisor; volunteered in the civil rights, women's, environmental, and peace movements; active in civic and community affairs.

'61 JD–Abdul W. Wohabe of Rye, NY, May 5, 2017; attorney; founded the Arab American Bank; founded the US-Arab Chamber of Commerce; modernized the commercial legal framework in Saudi Arabia; served in the Royal Saudi Air Force; active in community and professional affairs.

'62 BS Ag–Alfred I. Stober of Leominster, MA, April 11, 2018; dairy farmer; retired US Army Captain; enjoyed tinkering, gardening, and attending county fairs and tractor shows. Kappa Delta Rho.

'63–R. Bruce Campbell of Baltimore, MD, March 18, 2018; real estate broker; taught at the Inst. of Real Estate Management; volunteer fireman; enjoyed ocean fishing; active in civic, community, and professional affairs. Phi Kappa Psi.

'63 PhD–Hendrik A. Knoll of Santa Fe, NM, April 15, 2018; president, Knoll Bioproducts Co.

'64 BA–Richard V. Denenberg of Red Hook, NY, March 6, 2018; specialist in American government and workplace behavior; directed the seminar on employment law and policy at Oxford U. and Cambridge U.; adjunct lecturer, Columbia U. School of Journalism; national affairs editor, Sunday Review, New York Times; wrote for the New York Times Travel section; worked for Corrections Magazine; lecturer in political theory, U. of Wales; co-founder, Workplace Solutions; author; helped register African Americans to vote during the civil rights movement; active in civic, community, and professional affairs. Wife, Tia (Schneider) '67.

'65, BS Ag '66–John F. Carpenter of Doylestown, PA, April 1, 2018; worked in human resources management in the pharmaceutical industry; veteran; enjoyed woodworking, boat-building, and helping younger veterans transition to civilian life; active in community and alumni affairs. Wife, Myra (Markowitz) '67.

'65 PhD–Sol Kaufman of Elma, NY, April 1, 2018; principal systems analyst, Analysis and Simulation Inc.; project director, Head and Neck Cancer Control Network, U. of Buffalo; adjunct professor of industrial engineering, statistics, social and preventive medicine, U. of Buffalo; director of research and evaluation, Niagara Falls Community Mental Health Center; led the Dept. of Operations Research, Cornell Aeronautical Laboratory; veteran; author; avid reader; active in community, professional, and religious affairs.

'65–Alan Landis of New York City, April 14, 2018; real estate developer; founder, the Landis Group; part owner of the Minnesota Vikings and New York Yankees; former part owner, New Jersey Nets, New Jersey Devils, and YES Network; active in community and professional affairs.

'65 BEE, MEE '66–Keith H. Vetter of Crozier, VA, April 4, 2018; manager, manufacturing automation group, Reynolds Metals Co.; also worked for Corning Glass Co.; avid reader; gardener; woodworker; traveler.

'66 MD–Robert E. Curran of Seekonk, MA, May 2, 2017; ophthalmologist; chief of ophthalmology, Memorial Hospital; clinical assistant professor of surgery in ophthalmology, Brown U. Medical School; author; active in professional affairs.

'66 BA–Bonnie Bossart Emami of Plymouth, MA, April 28, 2018; financial reporter for DRI/McGraw-Hill and Deutsche Bank; also worked in advertising; active in alumni affairs. Alpha Phi.

'68 MILR–Linda A. Lafferty of Atlanta, GA, December 29, 2017; executive director, Federal Service Impasses Panel; also worked for the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services; former nurse; patron of the arts.

'68 B Chem E–Theodore Panitz of Shoreline, WA, April 22, 2018; math professor at Shoreline and Cascadia community colleges; former head of engineering science, Cape Cod Community College. Wife, Patricia (Snyder) '68.

'68 BS Eng–Thomas P. Rolland of Barre, VT, February 27, 2018; operated DynaCo and DynaPro specialty chemical companies; also worked for Fafnir Bearing Texton and MPB; Bible instructor; avid downhill skier; gardener; hiker; formed the Green Mountain Brass music ensemble; active in professional and religious affairs.

'69 BEE–Patrick A. Meadows of Lee's Summit, MO, April 10, 2018; senior engineer at Bendix; worked on the guidance systems on the Hubble Space Telescope; artist; cartoonist; singer; model airplane builder; loved fast cars, motorcycles, and ice hockey. Delta Tau Delta.

'70 BA–William H. Schlegel Jr. of Novato, CA, March 25, 2018; entrepreneur; co-founder and CEO, MarketTools; VP, Airfone; founder, Pacific Marketing Services; marketing manager, Guild Wineries; brand manager, General Foods; Little League and Pop Warner football coach; took part in triathlons and ultra-marathons, including the Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon; author; active in community and professional affairs. Sigma Chi.

'71 MD–Fred C. Chu of St. Louis, MO, October 31, 2017; ophthalmologist; director of ophthalmology, Washington U. Children's Hospital; research fellow in neuro-ophthalmology at NIH; veteran; champion ballroom dancer; traveler; active in community, professional, and alumni affairs.

'72 JD–James I. Ende of Oceanside, NY, August 13, 2017; attorney; avid gardener, jogger, and Mets fan.

'73 BS Ag–Gary J. Bennett of Potsdam, NY, May 18, 2018; veterinarian; field veterinarian for Quality Milk Promotion Services, Cornell; hockey coach; enjoyed fishing and reading; active in community and professional affairs. Pi Kappa Alpha.

'74 BA–Anthony C. Penta of Derry, NH, May 5, 2018; math teacher and math team coach, Pinkerton Academy; professor of mathematics, UMass Lowell; enjoyed horse racing and music.

'74 MS Ag–Alan M. Seaman of Lebanon, OH, March 22, 2018; United Methodist pastor; missionary in Pakistan and Nigeria; ESL teacher; veteran; active in community and religious affairs.

'74 MS HE–Sally Anderson Yancey of Monroe, LA, April 20, 2018; architect; created Praline Café; home economics teacher at Northeast Louisiana U.; enjoyed gardening and travel; active in community and professional affairs.

'75 MD–Robert E. Burke of Tenafly, NJ, January 1, 2018; professor of neurology and pathology and cell biology, Columbia U., director, Laboratories for Research in Parkinson's Disease; led the NIH Morris Udall Research Center; expert in clinical movement disorders; enjoyed gardening, woodworking, photography, sailing, hiking, cycling, and scuba diving; avid reader; active in professional affairs.

'75 PhD–Charles F. Dvorak Jr. of Westerly, RI, April 17, 2018; college counselor, St. Petersburg Junior College; also worked for Cornell, U. of Rhode Island, and SUNY Morrisville; veteran.

'75 MA, PhD '80–Alicia N. Sevilla of Bethlehem, PA, May 16, 2018; professor and chair of mathematics, Moravian College; author; campaigner for human rights; active in community and professional affairs.

'77 BS ILR, MBA '79–Michael P. Turula of Fremont, CA, December 10, 2017; businessman.

'79 JD–Kathleen A. Bursley of Long Beach, CA, January 30, 2016; independent publishing consultant specializing in intellectual property; former general counsel, Harcourt Brace Jovanovich; chair, copyright committee, Assn. of Scientific, Technical, and Medical Publishers; chair, Int'l Publishers Copyright Council; active in professional affairs.

'79 BS Ag–Carole Freedman Larson of Providence, RI, April 26, 2018; worked in advertising; freelance writer; advocate for lung cancer research. Husband, Lawrence E. Larson '79, MEE '80.

'79 PhD–Claudia Ann Sutton (Mrs. Geoffrey K. Wetzler '68, BArch '72) of Ithaca, NY, May 1, 2018; research associate in genetics, Cornell.

'82 MBA–Ronald A. Fullerton of Toronto, ON, Canada, January 28, 2018; professor of marketing at American U. in Cairo, U. of the South Pacific, Emory U., UMass, Quinnipiac U., and CSU Northridge; author; avid reader, classical music aficionado, and accomplished photographer; active in professional affairs.

'82 BS Ag–Michael J. Morgan of San Jose, CA, March 25, 2018; landscape designer and horticulturist; enjoyed travel, wine, and 49ers football.

'83 MS AEP, PhD '86–Joel A. Kubby of Santa Cruz, CA, April 18, 2018; professor and chair of electrical engineering, UC Santa Cruz; expert in micro-electro-mechanical systems and adaptive optical microscopy for biological imaging; active in professional affairs.

'86 JD–George R. Rhodes of Aspinwall, PA, April 28, 2018; attorney; enjoyed music, film, cooking, travel, science fiction, polar bears, the Pirates, and the Penguins.

'87 BEE–Ronald R. Brown of Florham Park, NJ, February 23, 2018; professor of mathematics, New Jersey Inst. of Technology; electrical engineer at Bellcore; enjoyed skiing, cycling, tennis, running, and travel; sports fan; active in community and alumni affairs.

'90 MD–Daniel J. Braun of Kailua, HI, September 29, 2016; founder, Braun Urgent Care and the Kailua Plan; veteran; subsidized costs of martial arts training for at-risk youth; donated land to Wild Kids outdoor learning program; certified yoga instructor; enjoyed free diving, surfing, open ocean swimming, mixed martial arts, long-distance running, and hiking; active in community and professional affairs.

'96 MMH–David C. Lee of Lewisville, TX, March 27, 2018; VP of development, Interstate Hotels and Resorts; enjoyed poker, boating, golf, roller coasters, movies, and single-malt scotch; active in professional affairs.

'99 BS Ag–Anthony O. Okobi of Sanford, NC, January 22, 2018; physician; medical researcher; technical research assistant, MIT; active in professional and religious affairs.

'00 JD–Christopher M. Griffith of Maywood, NJ, September 17, 2016; attorney; senior policy advisor and director of public affairs, Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction; senior advisor, Afghanistan's Independent Joint Anti-Corruption Monitoring and Evaluation Committee; consultant to the US State Dept.; advisor to Iraq's Commission on Public Integrity; author; active in civic and professional affairs.

'01 BS ILR–Allison E. McKenzie of Labelle, FL, May 1, 2018; attorney; enjoyed world cuisines, dancing, and adventures; active in professional affairs.