

Big Red Highlights

WRESTLING Yianni Diakomihalis '21 won his second national title to help the Big Red to a seventh-place finish at the NCAA championships. He completed a 29-0 season at 141 pounds with a 6-4 overtime victory in the title match. Max Dean '21 nearly won the title at 184 pounds, losing the final 6-4 after upsetting the top seed in the semis. Both earned All-American status, as did Vitali Arujau '22 (who finished fourth at 125 pounds) and Ben Honis '19 (eighth at 197 pounds).

WOMEN'S HOCKEY The Big Red made its fourth trip to the Frozen Four, reaching the NCAA semifinals before losing 2-0 to second-ranked Minnesota. Cornell finished 24-6-6 and went 17-3-2 in ECAC play to win its first regular season title since 2013. After finishing second in the ECAC tournament, the Big Red earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament, beating Northeastern 3-2 on an overtime goal from Gillis Frechette '22 (right). Jaime Bourbonnais '20 was named the ECAC's best defenseman as well as earning first-team All-ECAC and All-Ivy honors.

MEN'S HOCKEY For the third straight season, the Big Red earned a spot in the NCAA tournament, beating Northeastern 5-1 in the East Regional semifinal—its first tourney win since 2012—before losing to Providence College 4-0 in the regional title game. Cornell gained its bid after falling a whisker short of an ECAC title, suffering a 3-2 overtime loss to Clarkson in the title game. The Big Red posted a 17-8-4 record during the regular season and was 13-4-2 in ECAC play to finish tied with Quinnipiac for the Cleary Cup as the league's regular season champion.

FENCING The Big Red sent a trio of freshmen—Esther Bentolilla '22, Megan Eno '22, and Gillian Harrill '22—to the 2019 NCAA Fencing Tournament in Cleveland. Despite having only three competitors, Cornell was tenth in the women's team standings and 14th overall.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL After placing eighth in the preseason media poll, the Big Red defied expectations and earned its first berth in the Ivy tournament by finishing fourth in the final league standings. Cornell was 12-13 in the regular season and 6-8 in Ivy play before losing to Princeton 68-47 in the tournament. Laura Bagwell-Katalinich '20 was named first-team All-Ivy after leading the team in both points (16.1) and rebounds (7.9) per game.

MEN'S BASKETBALL Matt Morgan '19 finished his record-setting career as Cornell's all-time leading scorer with 2,333 points, second in Ivy history only to Princeton's Bill Bradley. After leading the league in scoring for the fourth straight season and posting a Cornell single-season record of 687 points, Morgan was a unanimous first-team All-Ivy selection and a National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District first-team pick.

WOMEN'S SQUASH A mid-season addition to the Big Red, Siva Subramaniam '22 (below) quickly established herself as one of the nation's top players, taking second at the College Squash Association Individual National Championships in March after winning nine of her 10 matches during her abbreviated regular season. Subramaniam, who was seeded fifth at nationals, beat the undefeated defending champion in the semifinals.

ALUMNI NEWS

BASKETBALL Louis Dale '10 and Karen Walker '91 were named 2019 Ivy League Legends of Basketball, which honors one male and one female alum of each school who has shown excellence in academics and athletics and had a lasting impact on their programs, schools, communities, and professions. Dale, the 2008 Ivy Player of the Year, helped lead the Big Red to three league titles. Walker held the team's career scoring record for 26 years; she still holds school records for career scoring average (16.3 points per game) and field goals made (640).

MEN'S HOCKEY Doug Derraugh '91 was honored as the CCM/American Hockey Coaches Association Women's Division I National Coach of the Year. It's the second such award for Derraugh, who was also recognized in 2010 when the Big Red made its first Frozen Four appearance. His former Big Red teammate Casey Jones '90 was named the ECAC Men's Coach of the Year for leading Clarkson to its second straight 20-win season.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY Three former Big Red skaters helped the Calgary Inferno to its second Canadian Women's Hockey League championship. Rebecca Johnston '11, BS '12, and Brianne Jenner '13, BS '15, were the team's leading scorers; Kelly Murray '16 played in all 17 games for an Inferno defense that allowed only 1.94 goals per game.

