Prints now available

Ithaca artist William Benson has produced a stunning painting of this famed watering hole in Collegetown; the bar where generations of Cornellians and townies "grew up".

The prints measure 16" x 22" on heavy matte stock. Mailed directly to you, $75; or signed and shipped from his studio, $100.

THE CACTUS PLOT

New cozy mystery set in the Four Corners region by Vicky Ramakka '70.

"Filled with interesting, likeable characters, this book could be the seed of a new series of mysteries set in our beautiful Southwest." - Anne Hillerman

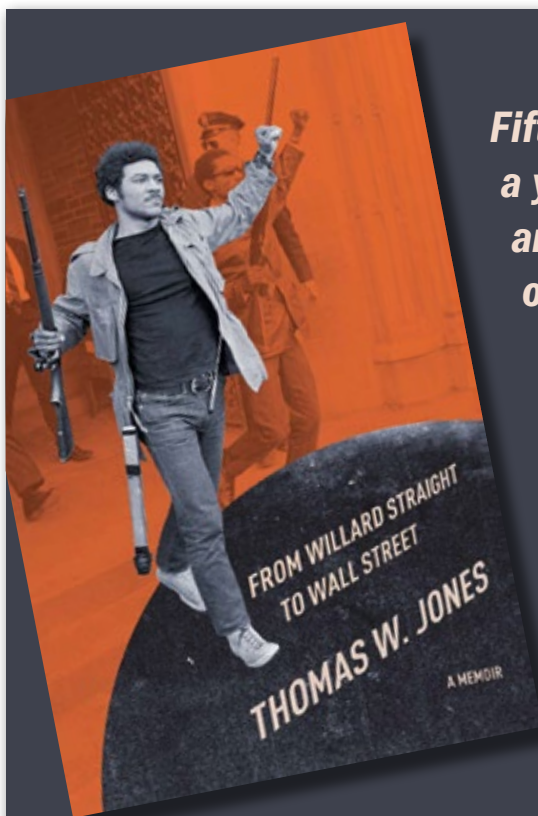

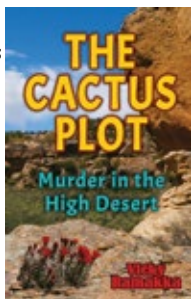

Murders overshadow botanist Millie Whitehall's peaceful summer surveying endangered plants in northwest New Mexico. When autopsy reports show two seemingly unrelated deaths involve plants, Millie must use her knowledge of ecology as she races to identify the murderer - before she becomes the next victim.

ISBN: 9781932926835 / 284 pgs / $15.95

Available from all independent booksellers and national bookstores.
